

Scholarship Application Guidelines

Please fill out the enclosed application and send all necessary documents to Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope via regular mail to the address listed below, fax to 561-748-7293 or via email to canceralliance@gmail.com. Applications cannot be processed until all information and documents are submitted.

- In order to be considered for financial assistance, student must be a resident of Palm Beach County or study in a Palm Beach County non-profit school.
- Funds must be exclusively for students who have had cancer or had an immediate* member of their family afflicted with cancer that has caused a financial hardship.
- A copy of your state issued valid identification is required with your application.
- The student must have a gap between what can be covered for tuition by Financial Aid, and what is owed by the student once all other sources have been exhausted.
- The student must apply to Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope, and if awarded funds, they will be disbursed directly to education institution, not directly to student.
- Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope will retain the scholarship funds; application records; amounts awarded; and reasons for denials, for a three-year period.
- When and if all dedicated scholarship funds are exhausted from the account, Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope will NOT be obligated in any way to continue the program.
- Scholarship funds may be disbursed during any period of a calendar year provided there are funds available.

Applications are reviewed and approved bi-weekly. Applicants will be notified of CAHH's Scholarship Committee's decision immediately following the committee meeting. Please feel free to contact our office at 561-748-7227 with any questions that you may have.
